

Page 22/The Observer/November 22, 2007

Sports

Sports Briefs

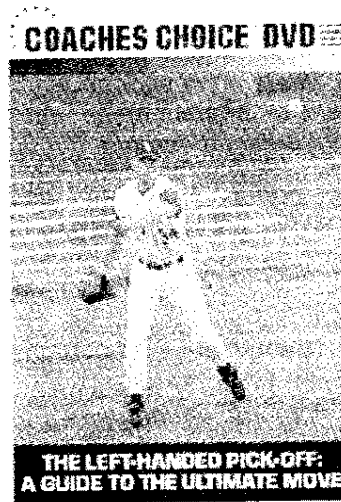

Northport Alumnus Wayne Mazzoni will be holding a seminar entitled "The Athletic Recruiting & Scholarship Seminar" at the Northport high school on November 28 at 7:00 p.m. The seminar will focus on some of the tough questions and decisions student athletes face. How to find the right school, determine the right athletic level, getting the attention of college coaches, NCAA rules, admissions, and scholarships.

Mr. Mazzoni—a 1991 graduate of Gettysburg College—holds a master's degree in sports administration and current coach at Sacred Heart University in Connecticut. Mazzoni has authored four books entitled, "The Athletic Recruiting and Scholarship Guide," "You vs. You: Sport Psychology for Life," "The Athletes Instruction Book," and "The Left-Handed Pick Off Move," and is considered the leading expert on athletic recruiting.

"The program that Mr. Mazzoni teaches is probably the most important information a high school athlete and his or her parents can have," John Levandowski, Athletic Director at the Princeton Day School said.

Mazzoni has previously coached at Fairfield University and The College of the Holy Cross in addition to making appearances on WFAN, Fox, ABC, News 12 and many radio stations around the country. Mazzoni has spoken on the issue of high school recruiting at over 300 high schools in the Northeast, including many Long Island schools.

The program which is sponsored by the athletic department will be free to attend by all parents and athletes grades 9-12.

Wayne Mazzoni